

Election to maintain my insurance cover

From 1 April 2020, new Government changes require REI Super to cancel insurance cover if your account balance is less than $6,000, unless you opt-in to retain your cover. Additionally, REI Super can no longer provide you with insurance in super if your account has been inactive (has not received any contributions or roll-ins for 16 months), and you haven't opted-in to keep your insurance with us.

Please complete the form below if you wish to keep your insurance arrangements within your super plan regardless of your account balance and activity. This election will not affect your rights to cancel or apply to change your insurance cover in future.

If you do not return this form, then on 1 April 2020 we may be required to cancel your current insurance cover if your balance remains below $6,000. You may not be able to obtain new insurance cover in the Plan in the future if you cannot provide satisfactory evidence of good health or meet other insurance conditions.
