Why insurance cover is important

For you and your family, being able to meet your financial commitments now and in the future is one of the highest priorities you have.

Without your income, could you or your family cover your debts? Could you continue to cover your cost of living or continue to enjoy your current lifestyle? Insurance can help to protect your financial security in the event of injury, illness or death by covering either your income or providing a lump sum payment. Your individual insurance requirements are dictated by your personal and financial circumstances which will change as your life changes.

3. Death and Total and Permanent Disablement (TPD) Insurance

Default cover when you join the REI Super

Insurance cover for Death and TPD is provided automatically to eligible members, however, generally this cover will not be provided from the date that an eligible member joins the Fund, but may be provided after joining the Fund once eligibility and commencement of cover rules relevant to Default cover are satisfied.

Under Government legislation, default insurance cover for Death and TPD can only be provided when you have a $6,000 account balance at least once since joining REI Super and are aged 25 or more, unless you make an election (opt-in) to have the default cover earlier. This is known as Default cover. Default cover is subject to you satisfying eligibility and commencement of cover rules. Default cover may be subject to Limited Cover restrictions.

Eligibility

To receive Default cover which comprises of 4 units of Death and TPD cover, you must:

- be aged 25 or over or, if you opt-in to have Default cover you must be aged 15 or more, and
- you must be aged less than 65, and
- you meet the commencement of cover rules described below. Different commencement of cover rules apply depending on whether Default cover is provided automatically or as a result of an opt-in.

When does Default cover start for members over 25 and have an account balance of $6,000 or more?

Default Cover of 4 units will commence automatically from the date we receive the first Active Contribution for you upon reaching age 25 and having an account balance of at least $6,000, provided that this is the first time you will have cover with us and you are still under age 65.

The cover that commences will be subject to Limited Cover restrictions provided:

- (i) Your cover has not previously commenced under a valid opt-in, or has not previously been cancelled or ceased; and
- (ii) You are aged 25 or more, and your account balance has reached $6,000 or more at least once since joining REI Super.

Limited Cover restrictions mean your insurance cover will be limited to an illness that first becomes apparent or an injury that first occurs on or after the date your insurance cover commenced.

Active Contribution is any amount we receive in relation to a member's account that we determine is sufficient for the account to avoid becoming 'inactive' under Government legislation for the purpose of providing insurance and includes a roll-in, personal contribution, SG contribution or salary sacrifice contribution.

Active Employment

A member is in active employment if they are:

- Gainfully Employed and not absent from work or on leave due to illness or injury;
- actively performing or capable of performing all the duties of their occupation for at least 35 hours per week (even if not working 35 hours per week), free from any limitation due to illness or injury; and
- not in receipt of, or entitled to claim, Income Support Benefits (as defined in the Insurer's policy) from any source including but not limited to workers' compensation benefits, statutory motor accident benefits or disability income benefits (including government income support benefits of any kind).

Opt-in for Default cover for members aged under 25 years and/or account balance less than $6,000

You can opt-in to have Default cover of 4 units earlier if you are aged between 15 and 24 years or your account balance is less than $6,000 provided:

- (i) This is the first time you will have cover with us;
- (ii) The Fund receives a duly completed (valid) opt-in form from you within 180 days of you joining REI Super;
- (iii) An Active Contribution is received for you within 180 days of you joining REI Super.

This Default Cover will commence once all of (i), (ii) and (iii) are satisfied, with effect from the date the valid opt-in form is received.

If the opt-in and Active Contribution are not received within 180 days of you joining REI Super, you may be provided with Default cover automatically when you are aged at least 25 and have $6,000 at least once, at a later point in time. It is also subject to Limited Cover restrictions (see below).

If you opt-in to have Default cover, you may cancel your insurance in the future at any time, for example, if you obtain insurance cover elsewhere and/or the cost of cover will inappropriately reduce your super savings. When deciding whether to opt-in, you should consider your personal circumstances including your current and future insurance needs and the impact of insurance costs on your retirement savings. Contact us to find out more about opting-in to have Default cover.

Limited cover restrictions

The Default Cover that you receive will be subject to Limited Cover restrictions for the first 30 consecutive days from commencement of cover.

These Limited Cover restrictions will usually be lifted and will be replaced by Full Cover after the first 30 days if you meet all of the following conditions:

- (i) An Employer Contribution is received for you within 120 days prior to your cover commencing (or recommencing) upon you having an account balance of $6,000 at least once since joining REI Super and being aged 25 or above, OR within 180 days of the date you joined REI Super (if you opted-in within 180 days of joining REI Super to receive cover earlier); and
- (ii) You have been in Active Employment for the first 30 consecutive days of your cover commencing; and
- (iii) Within 6 months immediately prior to your Default Cover commencing, you:
 - have not been diagnosed with, were not seeking for, were not under investigation and have not been advised to undergo investigations for, a degenerative condition for example such as Parkinson's Disease, Dementia, Arthritis, Osteoporosis, Motor Neurone Disease, Multiple Sclerosis or Muscular Dystrophy); and
 - have not been absent from work or have been on restricted duties or hours for more than 7 consecutive working days due to Injury or Illness. (Note: we will assess whether this criteria is met if and when you make an insurance claim).

Otherwise these Limited Cover restrictions will usually continue for a minimum of 24 months and will be lifted if you have been in Active Employment for the last 30 consecutive days of that 24-month period – if not, Limited Cover restrictions will continue until you have been in Active Employment for 30 consecutive days after the expiry of the 24-month period.

However, if before Default Cover commences or recommences, you have received or was entitled to receive a terminal illness or total and permanent disablement benefit payment from any insurance policy or superannuation fund, or are applying for or entitled to apply for a total and permanent disablement benefit from any source or were diagnosed with a terminal illness, the Default Cover that you receive will be subject to Limited Cover restrictions indefinitely. Limited Cover restrictions that applies because of a previous terminal illness or total and permanent disablement can be removed via medical underwriting.

Limited Cover will not be replaced with Full Cover if your cover ceases before the conditions for lifting Limited Cover restrictions are met.

Cost of cover – Unitised

White Collar: The cost per unit of cover is $2.05 per week for Death & TPD and $1.03 per week for Death only cover.

Blue Collar: The cost per unit of cover is $4.00 per week for Death & TPD and $2.01 per week for Death only cover.

Employer Sponsored members will generally be charged White Collar rates. See page 10 to work out your occupational classification.

The cost is deducted monthly from your REI Super account and may be backdated to the date cover commences where contributions are received later. If the contributions we receive are not sufficient to meet the cost of cover, cover may cease. The cost of Unitised cover may increase in the future. If this happens, we'll notify you at least 30 days before the change is implemented.

Cost of cover – Fixed

As a member you may elect to fix your Insured Cover amount. The cost of this insurance is calculated based on your age, your occupation and the type of cover: Death only or Death & TPD.

If you are not in Active Employment on the date of your request, Limited Cover will apply to the difference between the Fixed Cover and the amount of cover from the sum insured corresponding to your age as per the Insured Benefit Scale until you are in Active Employment for 30 consecutive days, from when full cover will apply.

However, if your cover is subject to a longer period of Limited Cover on the date of your request, the longer period of Limited Cover will apply until it ceases according to its terms.

The cost is deducted monthly from your REI Super account and may be backdated to the date fixed cover commences where contributions are received later. If the contributions we receive are not sufficient to meet the cost of cover, cover may cease. The cost of Fixed cover may increase in the future. If this happens, we'll notify you at least 30 days before the change is implemented.

4. Applying for or changing Death & TPD cover

You can apply to increase your Death or TPD cover (if you have been provided with Default cover), or you may wish to reduce or cancel your cover at any time. If you aren't provided with Default cover for any reason (including, for example, you do not wish or are unable to opt in to default cover), you can apply to the Insurer for underwritten Death or Death and TPD cover. When applying for underwritten insurance cover, you are required to provide the Insurer with medical and other information that the Insurer requests and comply with the Duty of Reasonable Care not to make a Misrepresentation as set out in the 'Other important information' section in this document.

You must be eligible for cover to obtain cover by application, for example, you must not be less than 15 years of age or over 65 years of age, and be able to meet the cost of that cover from your account.

Note: REI Super will require a valid election to opt-in for cover for any member aged less than 25; has an account balance of less than $6,000; and/or has held an account for at least 16 months and the Fund has not received an Active Contribution on the Member's behalf in the previous 16 months.

Transfer your existing cover

You may apply to transfer your existing cover up to the lesser of 15 units or $750,000 of Death and/or TPD cover if:

- a) your existing cover is provided through another regulated superannuation fund;
- b) your existing cover is of a similar nature to the cover provided; and
- c) you satisfactorily complete a form approved by us and the Insurer.

If you apply to transfer cover that is restricted in any way (such as by a loading or exclusion), the cover accepted for transfer will have the same restrictions applied for the term of your cover.

Where you have at anytime been accepted to transfer your cover and it is found that you continued to hold your old cover as well, any benefit payable to you will be reduced accordingly.

Apply for or change cover at anytime

You can apply for underwritten cover online simply by logging in to your online account at reisuper.com.au and going to the insurance area. Fast and simple, your online insurance application should take less than 10 minutes to complete.

You can apply for up to a maximum of 20 units or $2.08 million fixed cover. When applying for insurance cover, you are required to provide information to the Insurer and comply with the Duty of Reasonable Care not to make a Misrepresentation as set out in the 'Other important information' section in this document.

The Insurer may accept your application, and in some cases apply exclusions to the Death or Death and TPD cover you apply for. The Insurer may also accept certain types of cover and decline another type of cover. For instance, the Insurer may accept an application for additional Death cover but decline any additional TPD cover.

You will normally receive an immediate decision on your application. Where additional information is required by the Insurer, your application is immediately forwarded to a dedicated underwriter who will contact you on your preferred telephone number and time.

You may also vary your insurance cover you have by completing an Adjusting your insurance cover form, together with a Personal Statement to be assessed by the Insurer. These forms are available from REI Super.

Your cover starts on the day we are notified that your application has been accepted by the Insurer. Any premium payable will be deducted at the next normal premium deduction date provided your member account has sufficient funds in it. We will advise you in writing of the outcome of your application.

If you are permanently employed and working at least 15 hours per week, you can apply for IP cover at the same time.

Adjusting or cancelling your cover

To adjust or cancel your cover at any time, complete the Adjusting your insurance cover form available on our website at reisuper.com.au. You can also contact our helpline on 1300 13 44 33 to cancel your cover. Our consultants will read to you a disclaimer statement and require your acknowledgment. If you cancel your cover and decide to apply for cover in the future, you will need to supply health information as part of your application, and your application will be assessed by the Insurer.

Accidental Death or TPD cover

When you apply for any underwritten cover, you will be provided with accidental Death and, if you are applying for TPD cover, accidental disability cover up to the amount that you elect while being assessed by the Insurer. This cover commences when the Insurer receives a fully completed application from you.

Save time, apply online!

Fast and simple, your online insurance application should take less than 10 minutes to complete. Login to your REI Super account at reisuper.com.au to get started.

This cover will apply until the earliest of the following events:

- you have been accepted or rejected by the Insurer for cover;
- you have withdrawn the request for cover;
- your application is closed due to non-receipt of full completion of the Insurer's assessment requirements; or
- 90 days have passed since the date your application was received.

This cover will be limited to the lesser of the amount of cover being assessed and $1.5 million. Accidental cover does not apply to an opt-in to have Default cover.

- the date we receive your request to cancel your insurance cover (or the later date specified in your request);
- you cease to be a member of REI Super;
- when a Death, Terminal Illness or TPD benefit has been paid by the Insurer to REI Super in respect of you;
- you commence duty with the military services of any country (excluding the Australian armed forces reserve where you are not on active duty outside of Australia);
- you reach 65 years of age;
- there are insufficient monies in your member account to pay the next insurance premium payment;
- If no contributions or rollovers are made into your account for 16 consecutive months and you have not told us before then that you want your keep all or some of your cover despite your account being inactive.

We will write to you (if you are contactable) prior to your insurance cover ceasing, however we must cease your cover where required by law whether or not you are contactable.

Reinstatement of cover

If your insurance cover in the Fund ends, the only way you can reinstate it is to reapply for the insurance cover and be accepted by the Insurer. The Insurer may apply restrictions, exclusions or loadings. This applies to all Default cover regardless of how it is obtained (automatically or via an opt in) or the type of Default cover (unit based or, if you select it when you join the Fund, fixed cover equivalent to the amount of unit based cover usually provided under Default cover).

Fixed Benefit Cover Example

Susan is the Principal of an agency, and has determined that she needs $800,000 cover in the event she dies or becomes totally and permanently disabled. She was aged 38 at 1 November prior to the commencement of cover.

The calculation of her premium is as follows:
800 x $1.19 = $952.00 per annum

(where $1.19 is the cost per thousand dollars of Fixed Benefit cover at age 38 for Death & TPD cover.)

Next year, assuming Susan keeps the same amount and type of cover, the premium would be:
800 x $1.28 = $1024.00 per annum

(where $1.28 is the cost per thousand dollars of Fixed Benefit cover at age 39 for Death & TPD cover.)

Each year, the amount of Insurance cover remains the same, but the premium will increase in line with age.

Cover exclusions – enduring Limited Cover restriction

Where a Member has previously been:

- received or was entitled to receive a terminal illness or total and permanent disablement benefit from a superannuation fund or life policy; or is applying for or entitled to apply for a total and permanent disablement benefit from any source, or
- is diagnosed with a terminal illness, prior to cover commencing, any Default cover that commences, will be subject to Limited Cover restrictions indefinitely. Limited Cover restrictions because of a previous total and permanent disablement or terminal illness claim may be removed on application to the Insurer via underwriting.

This applies to all Default cover regardless of how it is obtained (automatically or via an opt in) or the type of Default cover (unit based or, if you select it when you join the Fund, fixed cover equivalent to the amount of unit based cover usually provided under Default cover).

How much cover do you need?

How much insurance you need could depend on your age, your circumstances, your current financial position, your health, your lifestyle and, of course, your personal preferences.

There are two ways we can help:

1. Use our online insurance calculator
Available at reisuper.com.au
2. Speak to one of our advisers
Call us on 1300 13 44 33 and one of our qualified advisers can help you determine how much cover may be right for you.

What is my occupational classification?

Your occupational classification is determined by the Insurer. However, if you are employed by a Participating employer within the Real Estate industry, you are likely to belong to the 'White Collar' classification.

If you do not provide us with your occupation, or your occupation does not fall within the 'White Collar' classification, you will be placed in the 'Blue Collar' classification.

Eligibility for the 'White Collar' classification

As a Direct Member, you may also be eligible for this classification provided you work more than 30 hours per week and spend at least 80% of your working time (excluding travel time between offices) in an office or similar environment performing clerical, administrative or managerial duties.

Your occupation will directly impact the cost of your insurance premiums. In the event that your occupation has been misclassified, the Insurer reserves the right to review the occupational classification and adjust the premium cost.

To ensure that your insurance cover is calculated correctly, you must advise REI Super of any changes to your employment status or number of hours worked, by completing the Occupational Classification form available at reisuper.com.au so that the cost of your insurance can be adjusted accordingly.

Definition of 'Total and Permanent Disablement' (TPD)

The Fund's Trust Deed states that the definition of Total and Permanent Disablement is the definition contained in the policy that has been implemented for the purpose of providing insurance benefits to the members of REI Super.

TPD means you meet Definition A or Definition B as described below.

The definition which applies to you is determined as follows:

- a) Definition A applies to you if you were Employed in Permanent Employment at any time within the last 16 months before the Date of Disablement.
- b) Definition B applies to you if you were not Employed in Permanent Employment, within the last 16 months before the Date of Disablement.

Definition A

Means that solely due to illness or injury, you (the Covered Person) has been unable to work:

- a) since the Date of Disablement because the Covered Person has a Mental Illness; or
- b) solely due to Illness or Injury for six consecutive months commencing from the Date of Disablement, and due to that same Illness or Injury also satisfies the following:
 - (i) has continued to remain absent from all work since the Date of Disablement; and
 - (ii) is under Regular and Ongoing Care, and continuously since then are unable to ever engage in or work in any occupation or work for which you are or may become reasonably suited by education, training or experience. In determining this, we will consider all relevant circumstances and factors including, but not limited to:

- what re-skilling, retraining and rehabilitation you have done;
- any volunteering experience you have;
- any future re-skilling, retraining or rehabilitation that you could reasonably undertake; and
- any volunteer experience you could reasonably obtain.

Definition B

You have been unable to work:

- a) since the Date of Disablement because you suffer from a Mental Illness; or
- b) as a result of Illness or Injury you satisfy the following:
 - (i) you have become permanently unable to perform the basic work activities normally undertaken as part of your everyday work. This will be determined by us being satisfied that you are permanently and irreversibly unable to perform without the assistance of another person any two of the five Everyday Work Activities; and
 - (ii) you are under Regular and Ongoing Care; and you provided proof to our satisfaction that, as a result of the same Illness, Mental Illness, or Injury, you have become incapacitated to such an extent as to render you unlikely ever to engage in or work, in any occupation or work for which you are or may become reasonably suited by education, training or experience

In determining this, we will consider all relevant circumstances and factors including, but not limited to:

- what re-skilling, retraining and rehabilitation you have done;
- any volunteering experience you have;
- any future re-skilling, retraining or rehabilitation that you could reasonably undertake; and
- any volunteer experience you could reasonably obtain.

Everyday Work Activities means any of the five activities:

1. Mobility: the ability to:

- bend, kneel or squat to pick something up from the floor and straighten up again, and the ability to get into and out of a standard sedan car, and the ability to sit in a chair for prolonged periods; or
- walk more than 200 metres on a level surface without stopping due to breathlessness or severe discomfort.

2. Communicating: the ability to speak in the member's first language with sufficient clarity such that they can hold a conversation in a quiet room by understanding a simple message and relaying that message to another person.

3. Vision (reading): the ability to read ordinary newsprint and pass the standard eye test for a car licence (with glasses or contact lenses if needed) and the member's vision is better than legal blindness. Legal blindness is as certified by an ophthalmologist.

4. Lifting: the ability to lift, carry and move an object weighing 5kg with hands, including using both hands together.

5. Manual dexterity: the ability, with reasonable precision and success, to use at least one hand, including thumbs and fingers, to manipulate small objects (such as picking up a coin, fastening shoelaces or buttons, using cutlery or using a pen or keyboard to write a short note).

Mental Illness means a mental illness which:

- a) has been diagnosed by a consultant psychiatrist and Fellow of RANZCP under the latest edition of the Diagnostic and Statistical Manual of Mental Disorders (DSM) issued by the American Psychiatric Association; and
- b) the Covered Person has been receiving psychiatric treatment for at least 12 months prior to the Covered Person treating psychiatrist's assessing the mental illness as chronic and unlikely to improve in the foreseeable future with or without further treatment; and

We determine that solely because of the mental illness, the Covered Person has suffered from the following incapacity for at least 12 months and is likely to continue to be so incapacitated for the rest of their life:

- (i) has received an established diagnosis of Schizophrenia or Schizophreniform Disorder from their treating psychiatrist; or
- (ii) is unable to care for their dependent children in any capacity due to the unacceptable risk that the dependent(s) will be exposed to physical, emotional or psychological harm, requiring the dependent(s) to be removed from Covered Person's care by Court order; or
- (iii) is unable to manage day-to-day financial affairs, including:

- Manage bank balance; or
- Pay bills on time without assistance,

requiring the appointment of a guardian to manage the Covered Person's financial affairs, where the appointment of a guardian must be made by Court or Tribunal order and the Court or Tribunal must be satisfied through its own independent medical review that the Covered Person is not capable of managing their day-to-day financial affairs as a result of their mental illness; or

- (iv) is unable to live independently, requiring a care provider to provide daily care and supervision to the Covered Person; or
- (v) requires ongoing psychiatric treatment and full-time residential care in a mental health facility to protect them and/or others from serious physical harm. The mental health facility must be authorised by the relevant Australian government (state or federal) to provide treatment and care to persons who have a mental illness.

Psychiatric treatment means following the advice of a treating psychiatrist in accordance with an established treatment plan and expert guidelines for the treatment of psychiatric conditions (guidelines must be recognised in Australia).

Care provider means a professional carer who is paid on a commercial basis.

Definition of 'Terminal Illness'

'Terminal Illness' means:

- a) at least two Medical Practitioners*, one of whom specialises in your illness, jointly or separately certifies in writing that despite reasonable medical treatment the illness will lead to your death within 24 months of the date of their certification(s); and
- b) we are satisfied, on medical or other evidence, that despite reasonable medical treatment the illness will lead to your death within 24 months of the date(s) of the certification(s) referred to in Paragraph a).

We can only release a benefit to you based on Terminal Illness once we carry out our own assessment based on the above criteria and the information provided to us in respect of your medical condition.

When Death and TPD benefits are paid

The Insurer pays insurance benefits to the REI Super Trustee. The insurance benefit then becomes payable in accordance with the Fund's Trust Deed and superannuation laws.

We must receive a claim for an insurance benefit as soon as possible after the event that triggers the claim. The Trustee will deal with the Insurer in relation to processing the claim, and if accepted, payment of the proceeds.

If you are travelling overseas, you may be required to return to Australia to be assessed for a TPD or Terminal Illness benefit. The Insurer will not pay for any costs relating to your return to Australia.

For more information regarding conditions of release see How Super Works at reisuper.com.au

Payment of a death benefit

If you die, while a member of the Fund, your beneficiaries who are eligible to be paid the death benefit (including your account balance and any insurance benefit) will depend on whether you had a binding or non-binding death benefit nomination in place at the time of your death (see How super works for more information). To assist the Trustee, we encourage you to regularly review your nomination and ensure it is kept up-to-date. Valid binding nominations expire after three years.

*Medical Practitioner means a person who is registered and practising in Australia, other than you, your parent, child, sibling, spouse/partner, business partner, associate or employee.

Non-binding Nominations

You may change your non-binding nomination at any time. Simply access your personal details via your online account reisuper.com.au or complete a Change of Membership Details form also available on the website.

Binding Nominations

Binding nominations can not be changed online or by completing a Change of Membership Details form, as specific legislative requirements apply.

To make, renew, change or cancel a Binding Death Benefit Nomination, complete the Binding Death Benefit Nomination form found at reisuper.com.au.

6. Income Protection (IP) Insurance

IP helps protect your income if you become Disabled within the meaning of the insurance policy.

IP cover is optional available from age 15 up to age 65. In the event that you can't work due to Partial Disability or Disability, each unit of IP cover provides a benefit of $5,200 per annum (before tax), and is payable for up to two years.

7. Applying for IP Insurance

Who can apply?

You can apply for Income Protection Insurance cover if you are:

- over 15 and under 65 years of age; and
- permanently employed and working at least 15 hours per week.

You will be required to provide health evidence and undergo the Insurer's underwriting assessment where required. When applying for insurance cover, you are required to comply with the Duty of Reasonable Care not to make a Misrepresentation as set out in the 'Other Important Information' section in this document. When applying for IP insurance you need to apply for a minimum of two units of cover and have the option to apply for three convenient waiting periods of 30, 60 or 90 days.

Note: REI Super will require a valid election to opt-in to have cover for any member aged less than 25; has an account balance of less than $6,000; and/or has held an account for at least 16 months and the Fund has not received an Active Contribution on the Member's behalf in the previous 16 months.

When eligible, the benefit is payable after the applicable waiting period monthly in arrears for up to two years, but will cease once you reach age 65.

Your IP benefit

Your IP monthly benefit will always be the lowest figure of:

- a) 75% of your Monthly Income (or 85% if you elect the superannuation contributions benefit);
- b) the value of your units of cover divided by twelve; or
- c) $20,000.

How much cover do you need?

How much insurance you need could depend on your age, your circumstances, your current financial position, your health, your lifestyle and, of course, your personal preferences.

There are two ways we can help

1. Use our online insurance calculator

Available at reisuper.com.au

2. Speak to one of our advisers

Call us on 1300 13 44 33 and one of our qualified advisers can help you determine how much cover may be right for you.

When does your cover start?

Your cover starts on the day we are notified that your application has been accepted by the Insurer. Any premium payable will be deducted at the next normal premium deduction date provided your member account has sufficient funds in it. We will advise you in writing of the outcome of your application.

When you provide evidence of health you will be provided with disability by accident cover up to the amount of cover elected while being assessed by the Insurer, to a maximum of $5,000 per month. This cover commences when the Insurer receives a fully completed application from you. This cover will apply until the earliest of the following events:

- you have been accepted or rejected by the Insurer for IP cover;
- you have withdrawn the request for IP cover; or
- 90 days have passed since the date your application was received.

Monthly Income means:

- a) If you are employed at the time of a claim incident means; the total monthly regular income received from your employer for your usual occupation (including salary sacrifice amounts, but excluding overtime, profit distribution, director's fees and any other non-regular payments). If your income includes commission and bonuses, these components will be averaged over a period of 36 months.
- b) If you are not employed at the time of a claim incident; the average of your regular income as stated above in the previous 36 months, or the actual period if less, subject to a minimum averaging period of 6 months.
- c) If you directly or indirectly own part or all of the business or professional practice from which you earn a regular income; your earnings include the gross revenue generated by the business as a result of your personal exertion, less eligible business expenses. Earnings exclude investment income, business expenses and mandated superannuation contributions. Monthly Income is the average over the previous 36 months of your earnings calculated in this way.

What does it cost?

Insurance fees for IP cover are deducted from your REI Super account.

You must select at least 2 units of cover, which is the equivalent of a benefit of $10,400 p.a.

IP premiums paid for out of a superannuation account are not tax-deductible.

Transfer your existing cover

You may apply to transfer your existing cover up to the lesser of 16 units for IP cover if:

- a) your existing cover is provided through another regulated superannuation fund;
- b) your existing cover is of a similar nature to the cover provided; and
- c) you satisfactorily complete a form approved by us and the Insurer.

Want to work out the cost of your cover? Use our calculator available at reissuper.com.au

Any IP cover transferred will also be subject to the conditions outlined in 'Your IP benefit'

If you apply to transfer cover that is restricted in any way (such as by a loading or exclusion), the cover accepted for transfer will have the same restrictions applied for the term of your cover.

Where you have at anytime been accepted to transfer your cover and it is found that you continued to hold your old cover as well, any benefit payable to you will be reduced accordingly.

How do I apply

You can apply for cover online simply by logging in to your online account at reissuper.com.au and going to the insurance area.

Fast and simple, your online insurance application should take less than 10 minutes to complete.

The Insurer may accept your application, and in some cases apply exclusions to any cover you apply for. The Insurer may also accept certain types of cover and decline another type of cover. For instance, the Insurer may accept an application for additional death cover and decline additional IP cover.

The Insurer may also apply special loadings on your premiums impacting the cost of insurance depending on the Insurer's assessment of your occupation and personal circumstances where your application for insurance cover is being underwritten.

You will normally receive an immediate decision on your application. Where additional information is required by the Insurer, your application is immediately forwarded to a dedicated underwriter who will contact you on your preferred telephone number and time.

You may also vary your insurance cover by completing an Adjusting your insurance cover form, together with a personal statement to be assessed by our Insurer.

8. Important information regarding your IP Insurance

When do IP benefits start?

IP benefits will commence for an eligible IP claim when you have been off work continuously throughout the relevant waiting period due to injury or illness. In order to be eligible to claim for IP benefits, your claim will need to satisfy the terms and conditions of the applicable insurance policy including the policy definition of Disability.

A recurrence of Disability from the same cause within 6 months of your return to work will be treated as a continuation of the claim, and the respective waiting period will be waived unless you had already been in receipt of benefits for the same cause for 2 years (the maximum benefit period).

What is the maximum benefit?

The maximum monthly benefit is equal to:

- 75% of your Monthly Income (or 85% if you elect the superannuation contributions benefit);
- the value of your units of cover divided by twelve; or
- $20,000.

If you are Partially Disabled and lodge an eligible claim, your benefits will be calculated in accordance with the formula below:

Disability Income is any income you earn from personal exertion while Disabled or Partially Disabled from any occupation.

When will your benefit be reduced?

Your benefit will be reduced by any amount if:

- you receive or are entitled to receive as compensation for loss of your income or income earning capacity (e.g. worker's compensation, transport accident payments, Centrelink or other statutory or government payments) or in respect of loss from another income protection policy; and
- the Insurer reasonably believes you could earn in your occupation while Disabled, or Partially Disabled.

You can insure your superannuation contribution benefit

You can elect to increase your insurable level to 85%, where the additional 10% is paid into the Fund as a superannuation contribution in the event of a claim.

The cost of this cover will be determined by the cost of the additional units of cover required to increase your sum insured to 85% of your monthly income. Each unit of cover equates to an annual income benefit of $5,200.

How long is the benefit payable?

The benefit can continue up to 24 months (2 years) from commencement of benefits. It will cease when:

- you are no longer Disabled or Partially Disabled;
- you cease to be under the regular care and following the advice of a registered Medical Practitioner*;
- you reach age 65; or
- you die.

Definition of 'Disability'

'Disabled' or 'Disability' means that you have a disability caused by an injury or illness, and are:

- unable to perform at least one income producing duty of your occupation;
- not working in any occupation, whether or not for reward; and
- under the regular care and following the advice of a Medical Practitioner*.

'Partially Disabled' or 'Partial Disability' means that you:

- have been Disabled for at least 14 days out of the first 19 consecutive days of the waiting period;
- are unable to work in your occupation at full capacity as a result of the illness or injury resulting in your Disability;
- are working in your occupation or any other occupation but only in a limited capacity;
- are earning less than your former monthly income; and
- are under the regular care and following the advice of a Medical Practitioner*.

* Medical Practitioner means a person who is registered and practising in Australia, other than you, your parent, child, sibling, spouse/partner, business partner, associate or employee.

When does cover end?

Your IP cover will cease on the earliest of a number of events referred to in the policy, including:

- the date we receive your written request to cancel your insurance cover (or the later date specified in your request);
- the date you cease to be a member of REI Super;
- the date when there is insufficient money in your member account to cover the next premium payment;
- when you turn 65;
- the date you commence duty with the military services of any country (other than the Australian armed forces reserve, providing you are not on active duty outside Australia);
- the date you die or become terminally ill or Totally and Permanently Disabled.

Additionally, your IP cover will cease if no contributions or rollovers are made into your account for 16 consecutive months and you have not told us before then that you want your keep your cover despite your account being inactive. We will write to you (if you are contactable) prior to your insurance cover ceasing, however we must cease your cover where required by law whether or not you are contactable.

The only way to reinstate your IP cover after it ends is to reapply and be accepted by the Insurer.

Rehabilitation expense benefit

In addition to the IP benefit, rehabilitation expenses (such as vocational retraining programs or the cost of a device to assist your return to work) up to 6 times your IP monthly benefit may be approved by the Insurer if:

- a) you are Disabled;
- b) the Insurer approves the rehabilitation expenses in writing before they are incurred; and
- c) the rehabilitation expenses are incurred to:
 - (i) directly assist you to return to work in your occupation or any gainful occupation; or
 - (ii) undertake a vocational retraining program.

Exclusions

Disabilities caused by or resulting from any of the following are not covered:

- any injury or illness which is intentionally self-inflicted or any attempt to commit suicide;
- any act of war (declared or not), revolution, invasion rebellion or civil unrest; or
- normal and uncomplicated pregnancy or childbirth.

No benefit will be paid to you if the payment of the benefit to you would contravene any provision of the Health Insurance Act 1973 (Cth) or the National Health Act 1973 (Cth) or any other related Australian legislation as amended or replaced or any proceeding health insurance legislation.

No benefit will be payable where payment of that benefit would expose MetLife Australia (REI Super's appointed Insurer), the Policy Owner (the trustee of REI Super), or the Covered Person (you) to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, Australia or United States of America.

Cover while overseas

You will be covered while overseas except if, on the day prior to leaving Australia, the country you are travelling to is the subject of an Australian Government travel advisory notice advising against all travel to that country.

If you are not an Australian resident or New Zealand citizen, you will be covered overseas (subject to the above) for a period of up to 90 days.

If you are in receipt of IP benefit payments, these will continue for a maximum period of 12 months from the date on which you were Disabled while you remain overseas.

Submitting a claim

You must submit an IP claim to the Fund Trustee as soon as possible after the event that triggers the claim. The Trustee will deal with the Insurer in relation to processing your claim, and, if accepted, payment of the proceeds. The Trustee will require you to provide information in support of your claim; and the Insurer reserves the right to investigate the claim, including but not limited to and requesting information and medical examinations. The Insurer will meet the cost of any medical examinations that it requests be obtained.

9. Other important information

The duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation

When you apply for life insurance, we will ask you a number of questions.

Our questions will be clear and specific. They will be about things such as your health and medical history, occupation, income, lifestyle, pastimes, and other insurance.

The answers given in response to our questions are very important. We use them to decide if we can provide cover to you and, if we can, the terms of the cover and the premium we will charge.

Care must be taken to answer all questions we ask as part of your insurance application honestly and accurately.

Otherwise, you may not be able to rely on your insurance when it's needed the most.

The duty to take reasonable care

When applying for insurance, there is a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation.

A misrepresentation could be made if an answer is given that is false, only partially true, or that does not fairly reflect the truth. This means when answering our questions, you should respond fully, honestly and accurately.

The duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation applies any time you answer our questions as part of an initial application for insurance, an application to extend or make changes to existing insurance, or an application to reinstate insurance.

You are responsible for all answers given, even if someone assists you with your application.

We may later investigate the answers given in your application, including at the time of a claim.

Consequences of not complying with the duty

If there is a failure to comply with the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, it can have serious consequences for your insurance, such as those explained below:

Potential consequences	Additional explanation	Impact on claims
Your cover being avoided	This means your cover will be treated as if it never existed	Any claim that has been made will not be payable
The amount of your cover being changed	Your cover level could be reduced	If a claim has been made, a lower benefit may be payable
The terms of your cover being changed	We could, for example, add an exclusion to your cover meaning claims for certain events will not be payable	If a claim has been made for an event that is now excluded, it will not be payable

If we believe there has been a breach of the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation, we will let you know our reasons and the information we rely on and give you an opportunity to provide an explanation.

In determining if there has been a breach of the duty, we will consider all relevant circumstances.

The rights we have if there has been a failure to comply with the duty will depend on factors such as what we would have done had a misrepresentation not been made during your application process and whether or not the misrepresentation was fraudulently made.

If we decide to take some action on your cover, we will advise you of our decision and the process to have this reviewed or make a complaint if you disagree with our decision.

Guidance for answering our questions

When answering our questions, please:

- Think carefully about each question before you answer. If you are unsure of the meaning of any question, please ask us before you respond.
- Answer every question that we ask you.
- Do not assume that we will contact your doctor for any medical information.
- Answer truthfully, accurately and completely. If you are unsure about whether you should include information, please include it or check with us.
- Review your application carefully. If someone else helped prepare your application (for example, your adviser), please check every answer (and make corrections if needed) before the application is submitted.

Other important information

Your application for cover will be treated as if you are applying for an individual 'consumer insurance contract'. For this reason, the duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation applies.

Before your cover starts, we may ask about any changes that mean you would now answer our questions differently. As any changes might require further assessment or investigation, it could save time if you let us know about any changes when they happen.

If after the cover starts, you think you may not have met your duty, please contact us immediately and we'll let you know whether it has any impact on the cover.

It's important that you understand this information and the questions we ask, so if you have any queries please contact us on 1300 13 44 33.
